

Professional Troublemakers

Note Catcher

In this lesson, students will learn about what it means to be a “positive troublemaker” and discuss women who are changing the world through activism.

LESSON PART TWO

Read the article “7 female activists under 23 who are changing the world” from CNBC. Select one of the activists profiled and answer the following questions.

What cause(s) is this person advocating for? Why do you think she chose this topic?

How is this person serving as the “domino”?

LESSON PART TWO (CONTINUED)

What change(s) do you think may come because of her speaking out?

What fears, anxieties/or challenges may these young women have faced? Why do you think they continued in their stance as a “troublemaker”?

How could this person’s silence have contributed to the status quo?
