

The Youngest in Charge

Note Catcher

This lesson highlights young entrepreneurs and encourages you to brainstorm how to make your dreams a reality.

ICEBREAKER

While watching the video "Mikaila Ulmer: Teen CEO of Me & The Bees Lemonade," consider the questions below.

What is one thing that stands out to you about Mikaila's story?

What is one thing that surprises you about Mikaila's story?

(Continued below)

The Youngest in Charge

Note Catcher

LESSON PART ONE

SEE

List at least 3 things that stood out to you while watching the video.

DREAM

How has this young person inspired a new or existing business dream?

ACT

What actions can you take to make this dream business a reality?

(Continued below)

The Youngest in Charge

Note Catcher

LESSON PART TWO

SEE

If you could visualize yourself providing a service, a product or sharing your voice with others, what would it look like?

DREAM

Add details to your vision. Where is it happening? Who is there? What do you hear? What do you see?

ACT

What are 3 small acts you can do to move that dream to a reality? When will you do these 3 things? How will you do these three things? What do you need to learn or what questions do you need to ask to act on your dream? Which mentors could you seek out to help you?